Every Student Succeeds Act/Military Recruiters

Under the Every Student Succeeds Act, Frostig School is required to provide to military recruiters the names, addresses, phone numbers, etc. of all high school students if we were requested to do so. However, parents can opt out of this disclosure. If you would like to opt out and not have information about your child released to military recruiters, please complete and sign the form below.

I request that Frostig School NOT release any “directory information” regarding my child to military recruiters.
